RAILROAD ACCIDENT. - About two o'clock vesterday afternoon the through freight train from Gordonsville, bound for this city, met with a serious accident a mile and a half this side of Fairfax station. The train was moving at a slow rate of speed, not more than eight miles an hour, when turning a curve, the engineer saw a cow in a deep cut just before him. As she would not heed the whistle he turned on a full head of steam in order to increase his speed and knock her off, but she was caught between the drivers and threw the locomotive, the Fauquier, off the track. The train contained twenty cars, nine of which, seven box and two flats, were smashed to pieces. A flat loaded with sand was next to the tender, and one loaded with lumber was next to that. The one loaded with lumber ran over the one loaded with sand and into the cab of the locomotive, in which were the engineer, C. M. Keys, and the fireman, John H. Watkins, both of whom were bruised and cut by the glass from the cab windows, the former on the left side, and the latter on his left hand. Neither are much injured, however, and the former went to his home in Gordonsville this morning, and the latter is walking about. The seven box cars were telescoped, and piled upon each other in a dreadful manner, and it is a wonder that all the hands on them were not killed; but only two were hurt, John H. and Martin Van Buren Kidwell, brothers and brakesmen. The former, who lives at Gordonsville, had his left thigh fractured, and his head badly cut. He has a wife, who arrived here this morning, and two children. The latter lives here, and he also has a wife and two children. He had his leg crushed below the knee. The news reached here at four o'clock and a passenger train with Dr. Lewis was immediately dispatched to the scene of the accident, where, as the track was torn up for a considerable distance, and obstructed by the broken cars, the passengers, mail, baggage and express matter from the train due here at 6:25 p. m. were transferred, and the wounded men put aboard and made as comfortable as possible. Exaggerated reports of the accident having been extensively circulated in the city, a large crowd assembled at the depot to await the arrival of the train, and at eight o'clock, when it reached here all the open space in that neighborhood was filled with people auxious to know the extent of the injuries that had been received. The wounded brakesmen were taken in a wagon to the house of Martin Van Buren Kidwell, the one whose leg was crushed. who lives on Duke street, between Alfred and Patrick, where Dr. Lewis, assisted by Drs. Brown, l'owell, and Edward Stabler amputated his leg above the knee joint, this morning, and put the fractured limb of his brother in splints. They are both doing well and the probabilities are that both will recover. A temporary track was laid around the obstruction at the scene of the accident, on which the through train for Lynchburg ran last night, and on which trains have been running regularly ever since, and a large force of laborers was set to work there immediately to clear the main track. The locomotive was almost completely demolished, and the cars were piled up in the cut as high as the second story of a house, and the scene of the accident is described by those who have witnessed it, as tearful.

ANOTHER RAILROAD ACCIDENT.-William Keaton, the engineer of a freight train on the Washington and Ohio Railroad, while standing on a track, in the depot yard of that road. this morning, was knocked down by his locowas backing to a water tank. and one of his feet was run over and so mashed that some of his toes had to be amputated this morning by Dr. Lewis, He was taken to his boarding house, Mrs. Price's, on Cameron street, near Fairfax, where the operation was performed.

STILL ANOTHER. -Mr. Jesse Lescalett, Master Mechanic of the Alexandria and Washington Railroad, had his foot severely mashed at the depot of the O., A. & M. R. R., this morning, by an iron axle tree of a car, which accoidentally fell upon it.

THE CATHOLIC EXCURSION. -The excursion of the Sunday School of St. Mary's Church to Glymont, yesterday, was a very agreeble affair autil the storm which occurred in the afternoon. That interferred considerably with the on similar occasions. festivities. The lightning flashed, the rain fell in torrents, and the wind blew a perfect gale. The flag-staff of the steamer City of Alexandria was struck by lightning while she lay at the wharf at Glymont, and was shivered. together with the railing near it. Many persons had sought shelter from the storm on the boat, and the excitement among the ladies and children, when the lightning struck her, was intense, and was manifested by shrieks, screams and fervent prayers. The steamer had to cast loose from the wharf in order to let the Lady of the Lake, bound to Norfolk, make her landing, and was blown a mile and a half down the river by the violence of the gale. Fortunately nobody was hurt, and after the storm, though many returned the festivities were resumed by went there" and is coming back home, as a a late hour.

A. & F. R. R. -Work on the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad has been delayed a few days by the necessity for building a bridge of four or five hundred feet in length at a slide just this side of Freestone Point, but the trestle work upon which it is to be built is already erected, and the structure, it is thought, will be completed by to morrow night, and, if so, the track of the entire length of the road will be laid this week. The iron from the lower end of the road has been laid as far as Cockpit Point, two miles below Freestone, and that two miles can be laid in three days from the time the Freestone bridge is completed. Trains, however, will not commence running regularly through to Richmond before the 15th proximo.

FESTIVAL. -The festival of the ladies of the 2d Presbyterian Church will commence at the Assembly Rooms to-night. Among the attractions will be the celebrated automaton skating rink from Baltimore, delightful music, beautiful flowers and everything that is nice to eat, served by the fairest hands. The object of the festival is to raise money to finish paying for the parsonage, and to pay for the Mission Chapel, and it will, doubtless, meet with the encouragement it deserves.

PROLIFIC.-A New Foundland bitch, the property of the proprietor of Opossum Hall, on the opposite side of the river, gave birth re-cently to fifteen pups, ten of which are living and in fine order, and for which the owner has been offered $10 a piece. The five others, females, were drowned, being more than the the benefit of Washington Lodge. mother could properly care for.

Mr. C. Augur has, at his residence, at West End, a sow, that last week, gave birth to twelve pigs, all of which are thriving.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE. - A young married woman while laboring, it is supposed, under temporary aberration of mind, attempted to jump into the river, from the Prince street dock, about eleven o'clock this morning. Her movements, however, had been watched by her little nephew, who clasped her around the waist to the Mayor's office, heard a pane of glass break, and on going to see what caused it, discovered a man in the act of climbing in the rear window. When the thief saw that he was discovered he ran off as fast as possible.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1872.

CONGRESS. The Senate, to-day, after the presentation of some memorials and a refusal to concur in House resolution altering the time of adjournment until the 4th of June, proceeded to the consideration of the House Tariff and Revenue bill, pending which, on the motion to limit sreeches thereon to five minutes Mr. Thurman protested against the adoption of such rule as unprecedented.

Mr. Trumbull took the floor and spoke at length in opposition to the motion.

Mr. Morrill accussed Mr. Trumbull of speaking against time."

Mr. Trumbull replied that he was speaking against despotism. In the House of Representatives the Ku-Klux bill was taken up, and on a motion to suspend the rule and pass the bill, (the suspension requiring a two-thirds vote) the vote stood -yeas, 94; nays, 108. Twenty-six Republicans voted with the Democrats.

This kills the Ku-Klux bill. The Methodist Book Concern.

NEW YORK, May 28.-Yesterday afternoon the special committee appointed by the General Conference to investigate the charges against the Methodist Book Concern, held a meeting, at which the reports of the sub-committees were presented. The chairman of the subing department, reported that the accounts were in a most disgraceful state. In one case there was a blunder of $20,000 against the bindery made in footing up a column. It is said Hoffman concealed this by carrying over $16,000 from the previous year and putting in $4,000 which appears to have come from nowhere in particular. No statement can be found showing a balance sheet to have been taken in twenty years. There are many things in the accounts unexplained. The reports made to the annual conferences were not made from the ledger, nor did that correspond with the ledger. Judge Coaley, chairman of the sub-committee on leather, reported that the question had been submitted to three master binders as to the amount of leather required to produce the amount of finished work turned out by the Book Concern in twenty one months. and the average estimate placed it at more than $28,000 less than Hoffman charged the Concero. It was also shown that Hoffman had been in the habit of selling the leather of the Concern to different parties. There was a discrepancy between the amount of money Hoffman drew as wages for his employees, and the amount he paid them. Dr. Carlton, the Senior agent, who was present, explained that he had relied implicitly upon the honesty of Hoffman, and if he was dishonest he (Carlton) was not responsible. After the reception of the reports of the sub-committees, the committee went into secret session.

The city laborers held a mass meeting last night, at Union Square, about a thousand persons being present. Several speeches were made. Frank Purcell said he would not advise a strike at the present time, because there were plenty of men ready to fill the vacancies. No definite action was taken by the meeting.

At a meeting of the Committee of seventy, last night, the special Committee made a report of the doings of the Committee from its organization. The report refers to the fraunds on the City Treasury and gives figures of warrants signed by Alderman Coman, acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Hoffman, in 1868, amounting to about $1,000,000. These warrants were paid, the Committee say, among others, to James Watson, Ingersoll & Co., A. J. Garvey and J. McB. Davidson,
